Ronna Bucci and Dr. Charles Dietz Art Scholarship

The Ronna Bucci and Dr. Charles Dietz Art Endowment Fund was established in memory of Ronna Bucci and Dr. Charles Dietz, and provides for the awarding of a scholarship annually to a highly qualified graduating senior of a Muskingum County high school or home school program. In addition to the cash award, the Bucci-Dietz Scholarship winner will receive a copy of Dr. Dietz's book and a sample of Ronna Bucci's creative work. The recipient is selected after careful consideration of the artistic achievements, artistic potential, academic ability, dependability, responsibility, motivation, and recommendations for each nominee. The scholarship is a one time non-renewable award.

One annual scholarship to a student artist pursuing a degree in a visual arts field at a college, university or institute. Students are nominated by their art teachers. The recipients are selected with consideration given to artistic achievements, artistic potential, academic ability, dependability, responsibility, motivation and recommendations. Student must be a graduate of a Muskingum County High School or home school program.

REQUIREMENTS
Each candidate must be a graduating senior from a Muskingum County High School pursuing a degree in the Visual Arts field at a college, university, or institute, and must be nominated by his/her art instructor. Students majoring in Performing Arts are not eligible to apply.

Teachers or instructors can nominate or recommend more than one student for the scholarship. The recommendation or nomination form should be completed by an individual that knows information about the applicants art abilities, preferably by an art instructor. The nomination or recommendation form is confidential and will not be shared with the applicant.

Applicants must submit a portfolio of no more than ten (10) slides in PowerPoint format showing photos of the student's creative work.
