Ohio College Guides

Scholarship Central is implementing, for the 2010-2011 school year, a brand new AmeriCorps initiative called the Ohio College Guides, which will place fresh college grads into high schools to serve alongside Scholarship Central advisors, professional school counselors and other school faculty to help guide traditionally underserved young people – low-income, potential first generation college-goers, and minority students – in thinking and acting seriously about their future after high school. We are recruiting talented individuals who want to make a difference to join the Ohio College Guides AmeriCorps team. A total of sixty positions will be available statewide, with four located in Muskingum, Guernsey and Noble counties. Positions begin in August 2010.
