Leckrone Legacy Scholarship

The scholarship donor says this about why she started this scholarship: "I had a full tuition scholarship while earning my associate degree and, despite everyone's advice, I took a year off before pursuing my bachelor's degree. I was fortunate enough to still live at home, work full time, and my parents paid for my books. As a result, I was able to graduate without any college debt, which is nearly impossible now. I started the Leckrone Legacy Scholarship to pay forward the opportunity my parents provided me."
